4.10	Grammar/remove mail	21	Correction	The Board meets at least twice a year, and as often as required by the association's interests. The Chairperson calls for Board meetings by e-mail, mail or telephone, including the agenda for the meeting.	The Board meets at least twice a year, and as often as required by the association's interests. The Chairperson(s) call for Board meetings by e-mail and include the agenda for the meeting.	No one will call or mail across Europe. Also grammar. Adding chairperson(s).
4.11	Delegating competencies	19a	Correction	The Board may delegate some of its competencies to one or several of its members or to one or several people designated for this purpose by one of its members. It may delegate responsibilities of daily management of the Association, with the use of afferent signing powers, to a delegated member. The number of Board members combined with the number of delegated members may never exceed the number of Board members elected by the previous General Assembly electing a full Board, and the mandates of delegated members automatically terminate at the same time as the mandate of the Board that delegated powers to them.	The Board may delegate some of its competencies to one or several of its members or to one or several people designated for this purpose. It may delegate responsibilities of daily management of the Association, with the use of afferent signing powers.	This is an obsolete paragraph from when IGLYO did not have staff and was hosted at member organisations. Currently the staff responsibilities should not reduce the number of Board members
4.12	Ad hoc groups	19	Addition of new §	-	c) The Board may delegate the completion of specific tasks to ad hoc groups composed of delegated members, and led by a member of the Board	This is effectively a catch-all for Working Groups, Task Forces, Steering Groups and whatever other group IGLYO decides to form in the future, whose detailed responsibilities should not be in the Statutes but in the Internal Regulations

4.13	Remove advisory committee	11	Remove line	The Advisory Committee.	-	IGLYO no longer has an advisory committee
4.14	Remove thematic steering teams	11a	Remove §	Thematic Steering teams may be formed, but may not manage the Association	-	IGLYO no longer has thematic steering teams
4.15	Remove advisory committee and thematic steering teams	11b	Remove §	The mission, powers and responsibilities of the Advisory Committee and the thematic Steering teams are defined in the Association's Internal Regulations	-	IGLYO no longer has an advisory committee or thematic steering teams
4.16	Equal votes not possible for statutes	16e	Remove	In the case of equal votes on reports, statutes and other documents, the Chair must reopen the discussion,	In the case of equal votes on reports and other documents, the Chair must reopen the discussion,	Statutes need 2/3 majority to be changed, so article doesn't apply for statutes.
4.17	Equal voting	21b	Change	In case of equal votes, the Chairperson's or its representative's vote prevails	In case of equal votes, no action is taken.	Double vote does not work with co-chairs. Equal voting rights in the board. A way to promote consensus by forcing the Board further discuss an issue if an action has to be taken.
4.18	Grammar	8a	Change	Any Member may resign at the end of every financial year by notifying the Board in writing.	Any Member may resign by notifying the board in writing.
4.19	Grammar	8c	Change	The ga may exclude a Member by a majority of two thirds of the present votes.	A member is excluded by a two-thirds majority of the General Assembly.
