

Capacity Building Workshop technical note & agenda GA2012-08

Dear GA2012 delegates,

We would like to invite you to take part in the capacity building workshop “Hate No More: The Off-Line Capacity Building Workshop for LGBTQ Young Activists on Combating Hate Speech On-Line”. The workshop is organized with support from the Council of Europe European Youth Foundation.

You can register via the online registration form (the same form to register to GA2012) before 6th November 2012.

<https://docs.google.com/a/iglyo.com/spreadsheet/viewform?formkey=dHVlcnUzaDk2OHZ4TjdlVHNaRmdabnc6MQ>

The number of places available to attend the Workshop is limited; therefore participants will be selected upon first-come first-served basis.

We particularly invite representatives of organisations working on the subject or interested to engage in the Council of Europe campaign on Young People Combating Hate Speech On-line to be launched in 2013, to apply.

If you plan to attend the Workshop please don't book your travel until you hear from us.

Objectives of the capacity building workshop:

- Develop understanding of hate speech on-line, how it affects young LGBTQ people and its consequences for social cohesion
- Sharing and discussing practical approaches to combat hate speech on-line against LGBTQ young people
- Provide on-line tools and activity models to be used with young LGBTQ people to mobilize them around the issues of hate speech on-line
- Build participants' capacity to develop and launch campaigns on combating hate speech on-line in 2013
- Prepare tools for the Council of Europe campaign on Young People Combating Hate Speech On-line to be implemented in 2013.

The technical information on travel, costs, reimbursement is available in the Technical note (GA2012-03).
